In detail

A rare opportunity to acquire a completely modernised pub with generous and well maintained accommodation above, circa 1 acre of grounds; to include pub gardens, large car park, stable block and situated within a popular and well connected semi-rural position.

This unique and rather iconic local property has been significantly modernised throughout by the current owners to include; a new central heating system, rewire, complete cosmetic enhancement throughout and reconfiguration.

The internal accommodation now provides a spacious and modern area comprising; entrance hall, large "L" reception room with bar and multi fuel stove, dining room, kitchen, cellar/utility room, storage/office and at first floor: four bedrooms (1 en-suite) and a bathroom. Externally, there is a large car park with dual access, detached gentleman's W/C block, detached stable block & garage, and large pub garden with atmospheric brook running through.

The property borders Littledean Rd and New Rd and is situated within Popes Hill, which is renowned for its amazing views and peaceful setting. The property is close to the nearby village of Littledean which provides a good range of facilities, including; a village shop with Post Office, two public houses and chip shop. From Popes Hill, Gloucester, Cheltenham and Chepstow are easily accessible. The motorway connections from the area are excellent with the M4, M5 and M50 all within commuting distance.

Tenure: Freehold
with vacant possession.
